

Dublin Art League Meeting/Minutes October 15, 2020

Participants-26 on Zoom

-The meeting started with thanking those that helped to write the grant to be submitted to the Dublin Arts Council. Submission date is October 16, 2020.

-A tour of downtown Dublin, Ohio will be conducted on Saturday, October 17, 2020 from 2:00-3:30. Please sign up by sending an email to dublinartleague@gmail.com.

-The annual Paint-Out will be October 24, 2020. Participants are asked to sign up online and pay ahead if possible. The painting starts at 9:00 and will end at 3:00. A wet sale will be done from 3:00-4:00. All unsold paintings will taken home. The Paint Out will be conducted in conjunction with the Historical Dublin Business Association. Volunteers are still needed. Anyone who contributes a can good, will receive a ticket to go into a drawing for a basket of gifts, sponsored by the Association.

-The Fall Show will be hung from November 14th. to December 5th. The drop off is November 14th. at the Dublin Rec Center. There are no entry fees this year and artists will be restricted to one piece and a certain size (no more than 18" on the longest side). Karen Van Cleve, Roberta Kayne and Dana Grubbe will chair the show. Volunteers are still needed to help put up screens, hang work and take down. Deadline to sign up is November 7th. No reception will be held, but during the November 19th. meeting, the winners and prizes will be announced.

-The December 17th./Christmas meeting will be a social meeting. More info to come.

-Davis Engler introduced our speaker, Phil Adams. Phil is a street photographer from Columbus, Ohio. He has been taking photos since 2017. Many of his photos are taken around German Village, where he lives. Most of his paintings do not include people, but usually show the alleys and the things found in alleys. He has used his photography to be a creative outlet in coping with his depression. He walks everyday and always finds something to photograph.

-The meeting came to an end at 8:45

-